

2026 Schedule

Providing Education & Training Opportunities To Our Customers

The CR Wall Gas Academy is dedicated to offering comprehensive education and training programs across a wide range of topics and disciplines. Our goal is to support the Canadian gas energy industry in operating more safely, efficiently, and sustainably.

Training Topic	Description	Date
NeoR Regulator	A 1-hour virtual webinar with Brian Schomper (Pietro Fiorentini) covering the NeoR regulator's capabilities and applications in Canada, including safe gas distribution and reduced emissions.	Fall 2026
Coriolis Metering	A 1-hour virtual session with Endress+Hauser on Coriolis metering technology, focusing on how it improves accuracy and efficiency in gas utility operations.	September 24 th , 2026
Gas Detection	An overview of best practices for maintaining gas and leak detection programs to enhance safety, compliance, and reliability.	Fall 2026
Welker - Oilers & Gas Samplers	A practical session on operation, maintenance, repair, and troubleshooting of Welker equipment, with optional hands-on learning.	Fall 2026
Bruerst - Pilot Heaters	1 day in-person training at CR Wall's Learning center in Cambridge, Ontario. Covers catalytic heater operation, configurations, applications, maintenance, troubleshooting, and hands-on demonstrations.	October 6 th
Mazco Tools	Hands-on training on Valve Changer and Safe-T Stopper systems, focusing on safe and efficient valve maintenance and pipeline isolation.	Fall 2026
FLAWSIC Meters	In-house training on ultrasonic meters (FLAWSIC500/550/600XT), covering operation, performance, and applications with product experts.	Fall 2026

Contact your CR Wall representative for more details on the training events below.

All Fall 2026 training are TBD dates based on demand.

shop.crwall.com

customerservice@crwall.com